Dear Friends:

As the LEAGUE OF THEATRE ARTISTS starts its second year, we begin a new phase of performance, bringing our highly acclaimed production of HAIL SCRAWDYKE! to New York City. This comedy by David Halliwell drew critical praise from audiences and the press as the third presentation of our summer season. We are pleased to be able to bring this play to the city to say thank you to our friends and supporters here.

The League of Theatre Artists has grown and prospered with your support during our founding term.

HAIL SCRAWDYKE! will give us the opportunity to express our thanks to you with what we do best--perform.

Your continued support, through tax-deductible donations to the LEAGUE OF THEATRE ARTISTS, will allow us to pursue our goals as theatre artists, as we start our second year.

Our warmest thanks,

Michael C. Van Landingham
